The Standard Catalogue Of United States Coins

OFF THE PRESS ABOUT SEPTEMBER 15TH

The coin-market is not static. The first edition of this Catalogue, published in 1935, listed the 1885 Nickel in proof at 50 Cents. The new 1944 edition lists it at $17.50. In 1935 the 1889 S Mint Silver Dollar was listed at $20. Today it is listed at $6. A knowledge of the numerous price-changes that have occurred in recent years is of vital interest to every collector.

This, the 1944 edition, is the most important that has ever been published. Aside from giving up-to-the-minute values on all United States coins, it contains a wealth of information useful to both the dealer and the collector. Such information is not to be found elsewhere. A new arrangement has been made that lists all coins in chronological order. This makes for easier reference and provides an excellent check-list.

Compiled and published by Mr. Wayte Raymond of New York City, it has been contributed to by 39 outstanding authorities on coin collecting.

We advise every active collector to order the Catalogue without delay. We will fill
